Program Mission Statement

Our top priority for our students is to provide a safe and secure environment, ensuring that our families feel reassured when they walk through our doors. We are committed to creating daily plans that engage students and cater to their individual needs. Our aim is to empower students to grow emotionally, mentally, and physically through support and daily guidance. As a staff, we strive to consistently motivate each other, seek training opportunities for self-improvement, and support one another through any challenges. By leveraging leadership, teamwork, and our unique talents, we are dedicated to building the best program possible for future generations.

Honey Grove Behavior Expectations

Behavior Philosophy

At Honey Grove, our number one priority for our children is to provide a safe and secure environment so that our families are comforted when they walk into our doors. We strive to make sure our daily plans engage students and accommodate their individual needs. We hope to empower our students to grow emotionally, mentally, and physically through support and daily guidance. As we strive to create a successful environment for all children, we ask that families partner with us to best identify and meet the individual needs of their child(ren). With this, Honey Grove will not be able to accommodate consequences from home that do not align to this philosophy.

Behavior Expectations At Honey Grove, we believe setting clear expectations for our children is important to their current and future success. With that, we have outlined general behavioral expectations for the children in our care. Through teaching, coaching, and mentoring, it is the priority of our staff to help all children meet these expectations:

Show Respect:

- For others: listening and following instructions, speaking to all in a kind manner
- For property: taking care of HG/school property, cleaning up materials
- For ourselves: speaking about yourself in a kind way, making your success a priority by always trying your best

Stick Together:

- Stay together with the group, unless given permission
- Listening to and following the directions of staff members

No Hurts:

Refraining from any physical aggression or threats to self or others

Refraining from unkind words or bullying to self or others

Just as we have behavioral expectations for the children in our care, we also have expectations for the way our adults conduct themselves. We believe that the behaviors of adults help guide and mentor our children, thus, our expectations for all adults (staff and families) are the same as our expectations for our children. Through professional development and coaching from leadership, it is our priority that all adults meet these expectations:

Show Respect:

- For others: addressing issues with children or another adult in private, with the main goal being to resolve the conflict/coach the child in a productive and positive manner
- For property: supervising children to make sure HG/school property is being taken care of, ensuring materials are cleaned up at the end of the day, following all safety measures outlined by HG
- For ourselves: speaking about yourself in a kind way, always giving your personal best at work

Stick Together:

- Collaborating with parents and staff members for the success of all children, including being united in decision making
- Making sure safety/ratio procedures are being followed

No Hurts:

- Refraining from any physical aggression or threats to self or others
- Refraining from unkind words or bullying to self or others

Proactive Strategies

At Honey Grove, we believe that positive behavior starts with building strong, trusting relationships with the children in our care that allow them to feel safe. There are several proactive strategies that our staff use to help build these relationships and create felt-safety for our children. These proactive strategies could include, but are not limited to:

- Have compassion for our children, regardless of the type of day they are having.
- Use empathy with children and refrain from shameful responses.
- Intentionally connect with our children by:
  - Using healthy touch: high fives, fist bumps, hand shakes, etc. o Giving eye contact to children when engaging with them
  - Controlling the tone, volume, and cadence of our voices when interacting with children
  - Matching a child's behavior, including talking about their interests or mirroring their body language
  - Interacting playfully with children
  - Engaging in positive conversations during check-in and dismissal
  - Teach children about their regulation and guide them to regulating activities
  - Ensure children have access to water and snacks
  - Give advanced notice of changes that might occur
  - Support transitions that happen throughout a session
  - As adults, being aware of our own stressors and understanding when our stress response system is activated

Responsive Strategies

While our goal is to implement proactive strategies to support children through their behavioral regulation, we also understand there will be times that behavior needs correction. The following are some of the strategies that could be used when a child is displaying behaviors within our program:

- Address the behavior immediately.
- Get on the child's eye level and directly address the behavior, while also staying connected.
- Use only the amount of structure needed to correct behavior, but not escalate it further.
- Allow children to re-do the behavior correctly, mentoring them through the appropriate words/actions.
- Level correction at the behavior, not the child, always reminding children that they are not defined by their behaviors and mistakes.
- Give children choices and allow for compromises.
- Re-establish the connection with the child after correcting behavior

Behavior Management Plan

Honey Grove has identified different levels of behaviors and will address them accordingly to help students learn the skills they need to be successful, while also ensuring all programs are safe environments.

Level 1 behaviors: These behaviors are minor, but they are also disruptive and inappropriate in the Honey Grove setting. Such behaviors could include, but are not limited to: talking back, not following directions, using profanity, disrespecting the boundaries of others, repetitive rough housing, and being uncooperative.

In the instance of a child exhibiting Level 1 behaviors, staff will refer back to the responsive strategies when they are correcting behaviors, while also ensuring general proactive strategies are being implemented. If Level 1 behaviors are ongoing (defined by multiple behaviors in a single session or repeated behaviors over a period of sessions), the following plan will be followed:

1. Child will fill out a Think it Through sheet and discuss it with a staff member
2. Child will fill out a Think it Through sheet, which will be provided to parents at pick-up
3. Formal write up, provided to parents at pick-up
4. Formal write up, followed by mandatory parent meeting with HG staff to discuss an individualized plan for their child. (Child will not be able to return to HG until the primary guardian(s), child, and HG staff have collaborated on a plan.)
5. After the agreed-upon plan has been implemented, if behaviors continue, the child will be subject to a series of suspensions before they will be dismissed from Honey Grove programs
  - 1-day suspension (include formal write-up)
  - 3 day suspension (include formal write-up)
  - Dismissal from program
    - i. Note: If voluntary withdrawal happens in the middle of this process, Honey Grove staff will resume implementation of the individualized plan and current behavior status if the child should re-enroll at a later date.
      - 1. Dismissal from the program could be up to 1 year, depending on the severity of the behavior.

Level 2 behaviors: These behaviors are more significant and pose a risk of danger to the child or others. Such behaviors could include, but are not limited to: physical aggression or threats of violence, property damage, bringing weapons, *fleeing from the room or building without permission, aggressive profanity, and defiance causing 1:1 support for a period of time that prevents the supervisor from running the program safely. *Note that if a child elopes from the building, Honey Grove will call for police assistance, if necessary, to keep the child safe.

In the instance of a child exhibiting Level 2 behaviors, staff will first make sure the child and others are safe and will focus on regulating the student. From there, the following plan will be followed:

- Parents will be called for immediate pick-up. 2
- Parents and HG staff will schedule a meeting to discuss the behavior displayed and outline an appropriate individualized plan to reduce behavior from reoccurring. (meeting must be held before child can return to HG) a. Note: Honey Grove reserves the right to move forward with dismissal from the program immediately after a level 2 behavior, if the behavior warrants that action.
- If ongoing level 2 behaviors are displayed, after an individualized plan has been implemented, Honey Grove staff may utilize suspensions of 1-3 days, depending on the severity of the behavior. The child is then subject to dismissal from any/all Honey Grove programs, to include Before and After Care, Summer Camp, and Intermission Camps for up to 1 year. Note: Upon re-admittance to any future Honey Grove program, the child will have a 1- month probationary period to ensure the same behaviors are not displayed. Any and all individualized plans will be implemented to help support the child.

Restrooming Statement

- Children in Honey Grove programs will have access to restrooms in all settings. All school-aged children (K-12) MUST be potty-trained by their start date in our programs. In the event of a toileting accident, the child must be able to clean and change themselves. 1:1 toileting assistance or changing is not permitted, as Honey Grove staff are not authorized to assist with this.
  - If your child needs a specific restroom plan to reduce accidents, please inform Honey Grove staff ASAP so they can structure a plan.
